(C) On November 28, Emboff delivered reftel demarche to Jurij Rifelj in the Security Division and Aleska Sovinc in OSCE Department of the International Organizations and Human Security Division. Regarding the Russian security treaty proposal, Rifelj commented that Slovenia was willing to discuss it, but not at the expense of the existing institutions to which Slovenia belongs. He stressed that Slovenia did not want to see any diminishment of NATO or the EU in the Euroatlantic security architecture. Sovinc expressed appreciation for our paper. She noted that Slovenia was pleased about the decision on Roma and Sinti, adding that when Slovenia heads up the Council of Europe next year it plans to have a conference on Roma Education in cooperation with the OSCE.
